

The Most Important Opinions of 2008

Published: 1:00 am Mon, January 5, 2009

Default judgment – Trustee

A profit sharing plan participant, who obtained a default judgment against the plan trustee, may recover from the trustee under a theory of personal liability, says the 1st U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Indianapolis Life Insurance Co. v. Herman, et al. (Lawyers Weekly No. 01-043-08) (14 pages).